THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR

MONDAY, AUGUST 15, 1870.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SENTINEL.

It is absolutely necessary that the SENTINEL office shall be refurnished with new material and fixtures, within two months. We are anxious to improve the SENTINEL vastly, and to furnish the office at once with a complete outfit of job type. We are unable to do this, unless our friends rally at once to our help. The most that has been made by the office since Mr. Turner's connection with it, is now due on our books, for subscription and advertising.—This amount is large—very large. It therefore, those who owe the office will forthwith forward the amount due, and if our friends in every county will send us a good list of new subscribers with the cash, (for we cannot publish a paper longer on the credit system,) we shall be able to accomplish our object, but without this kind of help we cannot. Mr. Turner is yet in the hands of Kirk. We cannot communicate with him or he with us, but knowing the necessities of the office, we make the above appeal to the friends of the SENTINEL. We hope every friend will more at once in the matter.

TREATMENT OF MR. TURNER.

We make the following extracts from a letter from Yanceyville, which will throw some light on the manner in which "free American citizens," are treated, who have been seized without law and kept imprisoned in defiance of law, to gratify the petty personal malignity of a would be dictator.

"There is not much to put in a letter from here; the monotony is varied occasionally by the drilling of 'Kirk's lambs,' and at other times by their raids on the neighboring corn-fields. Kirk tells gentlemen whom he has not sufficiently insulted to prevent their speaking to him, that Holden sends him no orders, he "yits" no answer to his telegrams."

* * * * * * *

"I go down every forenoon to wave my hat to the Alamance boys, get a sight of the top of Mr. Turner's head, which is about as near an approach to him as is allowed. Occasionally one of the "lambs" commits an assault on a U. S. soldier by throwing stones, like the Black Mountain Boys of Gen. Martin's pike brigade, "rocks is my weapins."

* * * * * * *

"We are all trying to guess what Tourgee came here for. He came and put up at the house of his negro friend, and after being closeted with Kirk some time, left.—His appearance and disappearance were alike mysterious.

If Alamance and Caswell are in a state of insurrection, how dare Tourgee to pass through the county with his wife, and return without a guard?"

* * * * * * *

"This forenoon Mrs. Turner went down to Jock at her husband through the window and have a few words with him, but he was not allowed to come to the window.—He waved his hand and shook his head to intimate to her that he was not allowed to see or speak to her. "O Liberty! how many crimes are committed in thy name!"

* * * * * * *

"Mrs. Turner has not yet given way once, but keeps up bravely. Last night hearing her talking they threw several large stones toward the place where they heard her voice; the stones struck all round her, but fortunately did not strike her"

The writer of the letter from which these extracts are taken, is fully cognizant of the facts and incidents given. Let the people think of these things, they show the animus of this whole proceeding of Holden and his confederates.

ALAMANCE AND CASWELL.

We have received from no source, the official vote of Alamance or Caswell. We want it and hope our friends will send it.—Before the election, our friends calculated confidently to carry both counties. After the arrival of Kirk's men and their atrocities, their hopes of success vanished, but a few days before the election they rallied and made a better contest than we expected.—From what we learn, Caswell was carried against us by about 300 votes and Alamance by perhaps 200. This with all the odds against us, the outrages of Kirk and the whole power of the N. C. Railroad to defeat us—is doing well. The elections held in these two counties are doubtless null and void, and no doubt will be declared so, if the General Assembly has any confidence in the correctness of any of Chief Justice Pearson's Decisions in the Kirk habeas corpus cases.

MAYOR BERRY OF NEWBERN.—We have seen this man quite busy about this city a week or two ago, but did not enquire his business. The Newbern Journal of Commerce says that he fills the offices of Mayor of Newbern, Justice of the Peace of Township No. 8 in Craven, Brigadier General of Holden's militia and Brigade Commissary with the rank of Major of the State troops under Kirk and Clarke. It says, that he has been dispatched to Illinois and Vermont on business connected with Holden's troops, and will return by way of Fortress Monroe to negotiate for a battery of artillery to be used by Kirk. He is a pliant tool and may be used for mischief, if kept out of personal danger and paid well for it.

THE HORRIBLE PLOT!!

CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE PEACE OF THE STATE!

John Pool's Proposition to Assassinate the leading Conservatives and Democrats of the State!

HOLDEN'S WICKED COUNSELLERS.

More than two years ago, by securing the mobilized vote of the 75,000 negro voters of the State, through the exertions of the carpet baggers and the Union Leagues and the timidity of some white voters and the scallawagry of others, and the bayonets of Gen. Canby, Holden and the Radical party secured the election, by an immense majority—more than 20,000.

If Holden and his co adjutors had possessed the common feelings of humanity, the common sense which dictates ordinary prudence and propriety and any common honesty or personal integrity, the Radical party might have held together and triumphed for twenty years. But like an undisciplined mob greedy of plunder and flushed with success, they gave loose rein to their passions, throwing up their hats at the utter prostration of the respectable and virtuous portion of the community, rejoicing that negrodom and scalawagry were now the top rail and that the rebel aristocracy were at the bottom.

A thorough partizan administration was decided upon, in which no Conservative or Democrat could find place—consequently the most incompentent and bitter officeholders were generally selected and a spirit of revenge and Iscariotism predominated with the party.

W. W. Holden, John Pool and others who knew too well the energy and power of intelligence, virtue and wealth to remain imprisoned and overborne by ignorance and shameless depravity, had scarcely gotten warm in their robes of office, before they began to devise schemes by which their nefarious and wicked plans of public plunder and embarrassment of the people of the State, might not break down the Radical party in the State, but give to it continued triumph.

Holden is destitute of genius—he can devise nothing, plan nothing or build up anything without a fugleman and prompter. John Pool however is an arch-trickster and wire-worker. At heart he was bitterly hostile to Holden, but stooped to serve him for the sake of plunder and place all the time hoping that Holden might be caught in the meshes which he had devised for him, but escape himself.

The scheme determined upon, and in this many besides Pool and Holden were agreed, was, that fearing they could not control the negroes long by the influence of the Union Leagues, the powers of Holden must be enlarged by law and provision made for a strong military government, so as to intimidate, force and control by the bayonet.

This scheme was inaugurated at an early period. John Pool, we learn, drew up the infamous military bill, which the violent men of the Radical party tried to force through the General Assembly of 1868 '9, but which fortunately was rendered wholly inefficient by various amendments. The scheme being thus defeated, it is said, Mr. Pool drew up the Shoffner bill—a most iniquitous measure too horrible for Republicans even of any respectability—hence, the bill was so amended as to make it inefficient. Shoffner, it is said, received $1,200 for presenting and managing this bill in the State Senate.

All these measures were projected solely for the purpose of strengthening the back of Holden and his cliqus, but professedly to put down Ku Klux outrages. Hence, the Radical papers charged every crime committed upon white Ku Klux, although it was known that four fifths of the crimes committed were done by negroes and Union Leaguers.

The robberies and swindles committed by the Radicals upon the Public Treasury and the people, through bribery and other means upon the General Assembly, produced such universal clamor among the people, that Holden, Pool and the Radical leaders, generally, became greatly alarmed and determined upon the most prompt, efficient and bloody measures, however lawless and sanguinary, to prevent the defeat of Radicalism in the August election.

The Holden clan was convened in the Executive office in this city at sundry times during April and May last, to devise those means. Various schemes were suggested and considered. All the persons who engaged in the caucus and conspiracy against the peace of the State, will not now be given. Their names shall be forthcoming when necessary. The mention of them and their diabolical plans will make the ears of the people tingle.

In one of these caucuses JOHN POOL, then and now the so-called U. S. Senator from North Carolina—the man who authorized Senator Doolittle, in the U. S. Senate, to publish his infamy,—that he became a State Senator in 1864, from Bertie, and took the oath to support the Constitution of the Confederate States, "for the purpose of embarrassing the Confederacy"—this said John Pool, in the aforesaid caucus, we are told, with Holden and others, made the following diabolical proposition:

It had been agreed that many leading Conservative gentlemen of the State should be charged as being leaders and abettors of Ku Klux and arrested and if possible gotten out of the way. Various plans had been suggested. Among them, John Pool boldly proposed it is said, that the inhuman, Satanic scheme which had been so successfully adopted by Gov. Clayton of Arkansas should be adopted by Gov. Holden. It was alledged that Clayton by the agency of a band of desperadoes had arrested a number of the most offensive and respectable Conservatives of Arkansas, most of whom were assassinated by these desperadoes and reported by them to have been lost or made their escape. Pool, we are told, unblushingly recommended to the caucus, THAT HOLDEN SHOULD ORGANIZE AT ONCE A BAND OF DESPERADO'S LIKE THEM, AND PUT AT THEIR HEAD A NOTORIOUS PIRATE, WHOM HE NAMED, WHO SHOULD ARREST SUCH MEN AS HON. JOSIAH TURNER, JR., GOV. GRAHAM, GOV. BRAGG, GOV. VANCE AND OTHERS, AND SHOULD LOSE THEM, LEAVING NO TRACE OF THEIR WHEREABOUTS!!

Malicious and violent as the members of this caucus were, this Satanic scheme of Pool's we are told, was too much for their nerves or their sourage. The conspirators slunk from so hazardous and vile a proposition. It was then that the programme which Holden and Kirk have since carried out was adopted. But there were several things necessary to carry it out. First, by the aid of Tourgee and others a long list of infamous outrages by Ku Klux must be made out. President Grant's mind and the minds of the Northern people must be inflamed by private conversations and the publication of these outrages. John Pool was ready to start the ball and procured the publication of this list of Ku Klux outrages in Forney's Washington Chronicle and other Northern papers. Holden, Pool, Abbott, and Judge Settle, were to convince President Grant that these outrageous crimes had actually been committed by Ku Klux, meaning Conservatives and Democrats, that this Klan extended all over the State, was composed of the soldiers of the late Confederate army, who were armed and still in rebellion against the government, and were resolved to overturn the reconstructed government of North Carolina, all which was a base, unmitigated falsehood, and that the Constitution and laws of North Carolina, fully authorized the Governor to raise the necessary military force to put them down.

It is understood that the scheme succeeded with President Grant, and that he pledged his warmest support to Holden in executing the laws. Hence when called on he promptly sent U. S. troops into the State, accompanied however with the order "to aid the civil authorities in enforcing the law." The history of the progress of this conspiracy against the peace of the State to the present time, is already known to our readers.

CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

It is with no pleasure that we feel called upon to say of this dignitary, that the opinion has been growing up and is now almost universal, that in the late habeas corpus cases before him, he was acting secretly in complicity with Holden, and that they understood each other perfectly.

His addressing a letter to Governor Holden when Kirk refused to make any return and thus getting him to intervene in the case—his suggestion, (though deciding that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended,) that the Governor might take upon himself the responsibility of acting on the extreme principle, "the safety of the State is the supreme law"—his declaring in advance in his third written proposition for discussion by counsel, that it was in his "opinion certain, that an order to the Sheriff of a county to call out 'the power of the county,' and with force take the petitioners out of the hands of the military authorities will plunge the whole State into civil war,"—his fling at the counsel of the prisoners,—his saying, the motion to attach Kirk was made "at the instance of one who is under arrest for the horrid crime of murder and midnight assassination," when no such charge had been made before him or ever has been made in any tangible shape by anybody—his refusing to enforce the provisions of the habeas corpus act, but contenting himself with merely making known to the Governor, through the Marshal of the Supreme Court, that he had re-issued the writs, when he knew well that the Governor would not obey them—his final absurd decision that every man, woman and child in Alamance county, were legally in a state of insurrection, and that there could be no "power of the county" to call out and no way therefore to execute the writs,—his allowing Holden from day to-day, by his organ the Standard, and in every other possible manner to hold out and declare to the public, that he and the Judge were in perfect accord—that he was sustained by the Judge in refusing obedience to the writs—and when that matter was pointedly brought to his attention by counsel and he was asked to put it right, he in his short opinion, abdicating all his power as a Judge, failed to take any notice whatever of the fact that he was so held up as sustaining the Governor and thus allowed it to go out to the public as true—all, all these things and many others that could be mentioned, had tended far to cause the general belief that the Judge, from partizan feelings, or for some other cause; begs to be excused, had not only failed to do his duty, but was actually in complicity with Holden in his tyrannical conduct from the first to the last.

If any further evidence were wanting to establish that such was the fact, witness the following extract from a letter of Beecher, the correspondent of the New York Tribune, who, it seems, interviewed Judges Pearson, Dick and Settle, at their boarding house in Raleigh; and who dates his letter from Raleigh, July 31. The letter may be seen in the Weekly Tribune of the 3rd August.

After saying a good deal, from which it would seem that the judicial worthies treated the credulous correspondent to a full dish of Ku Klux horrors, he says as follows of Judge Pearson:

"I was gratified to find that the Judge was in entire accord with Governor Holden in his course. He laughed good humoredly at the apparent dispute on the matter of the writ of habeas corpus, and regarded his action as a matter of form, and the Governor's in refusing to allow the writ served, a matter of necessity. In spite of the mild controversy between the two, they are agreed entirely in the course which is necessary to be pursued, and are upon terms of the most intimate friendship."

Comment upon the above is unnecessary. Henceforth Judge Pearson's name goes down to posterity with those of the venal and corrupt Judges, whose names have become a by word and a reproach. He is the first of a long line of native North Carolina Judges who has so conducted himself. Let us hope that he will be the last. What a melancholy contrast does his conduct present to that of Judge Brooks, under like circumstances!

THE LAST RUMOR.

The persons arrested by Kirk were brought to Company Shops on last evening. Judge Brooks who was compelled to be at Morganton to day, to hold his Court, had previously ordered that they should be brought before him on Thursday next. It is now rumored, that they have been brought to Company Shops and that Chief Justice Pearson has been sent for, to come to this city before Thursday, and have them brought before him. We doubt if Judge Pearson will be guilty of such a deed. He has declared officially that the Court had exhausted its powers and had failed to execute the HABEAS CORPUS. The writs therefore became null, and we judge that those writs cannot be revived. Judge Brooks moreover will not submit to any interference of Chief Justice Pearson or any other State Judge, at this juncture. The writ of HABEAS CORPUS has been snubbed and ignored by Holden and Judge Pearson's action, and the Constitution of the United States has been grossly violated by Holden and Kirk, and Judge Brooks will do his duty in the premises.

THE YANCEYVILLE PRISONERS.—We received the following dispatch from Mr. Turner, dated at Company Shops, last night:

"All the prisoners are here from Yanceyville; I am lying under a tree, wet and fatigued from travel."

We venture upon no comment on this telegram, but will only say that this indignity is simply the result of personal malignity without any foundation whatever; for, whoever says that Josiah Turner, Jr. ever belonged to or encouraged the Ku Klux, White Brotherhood, Invisible Empire, or any other secret political organization, is a liar and the truth is not in him.

The people have given a pretty strong intimation of their views in regard to these diabolical outrages on innocent citizens, but the end is not yet; the perpetrators will be held to a still further and more strict accountability, all according to law.

NORTH CAROLINA.

If ever the Post's cockerel had reason to crow loudly and lustily it was, assuredly, upon receiving the news from North Carolina. The Conservative victory there last week is one of the most brilliant and important ever bulletined. It was a gallant and successful marshalling of strength, a sort of masked battery, that held its fire until the right moment and then blazed all along the line, doing its work with a thoroughness that leaves the result entirely unequivocal. The record of triumphs is full. Congressional districts, United States Senator, Legislature, Attorney Generalship—all are secured. Hardly a solitary vantage spot is shewn as the fruit of the Holdenism which has defamed, outraged and humiliated the State. The torturing of citizens, the intimidation by means of negro troops, the annihilation of private rights, the money influence and appliances of every kind used to extort a different political sentiment have proved ineffectual. The bloody resistance so ardently desired was not manifested. Peace and safety, save the arbitrary and violent acts of the constituted authorities themselves, have been everywhere maintained. But there has not been inaction all this time. Conservatives fully understood the plan of proceeding and adhered to it, although making no outward demonstration that could possibly justify the oppressive Grant Holden coercive measures. The day of election, however, found a force united, ready and demonstrative enough to more than satisfy their antagonists.

There is a Providence that overrules the most atrocious of the Radical designs to the country's salvation. They believed they had the "twist" on North Carolina this time, Holden, with his negro militia, Grant backing him with United States troops, the judiciary trampled under foot and whole counties declared in a state of open rebellion; but the free people of the brave old State revolted at such crimes against liberty and their vote overwhelmed these wicked machinations in ruin. Holden and his supporters are indignantly repudiated. The whole plot is blown to the moon. Negro equality is declared not to be negro supremacy. The triumph is reassuring, because it indicates with truth the real temper of the Southern people and reveals their intentions. It has proved them patient, and even silent, under the grossest outrages ever put upon freemen. They saw that protest was unavailing, when but a single Northern journal of the ruling party in Congress raised its voice against the indignity. But they trusted to the final supremacy of justice and truth, and they are not disappointed. If there is any revolt at all in North Carolina, it is Holden that conducts it, with Kirk for his lieutenant.—Boston Post.

HOLDEN discovers since the election in NORTH CAROLINA that "we walk here daily upon the crumbling brink of a volcano." So at least says the gubernatorial organ, the Raleigh Standard. Seeing the extent of the Conservative victory in the Old North State, it is not at all unlikely that the ground is crumbling under some folk's feet. A Conservative Legislature may ask some knotty questions as to the powers of any State Executive to enlist an army and make war on the people he is sworn to respect, and the North will not very much care to what an extent so reasonable an interrogatory be pushed. The country is sick of violence, and will not look unkindly on any action tending to discourage further appeals to arms. By levying troops to interfere with the peaceable exercise of the ballot Governor Holden has rendered himself amenable to the Enforcement act, and unless he forthwith disbands his ragamuffins that statute, made to cut one way, might be found to possess an edge in the other.—N Y World.

UNLAWFUL ARREST.—We learn from the Raleigh SENTINEL that the Editor of that paper was arrested by the military on Thursday last at Hillsboro. We denounce such arrests as unlawful and in violation of the rights of a free citizen. But the arrest of an Editor under such circumstances always redounds to his benefit rather than injury, for the people will certainly disapprove of the course of the authorities in arresting any citizen without civil process, but more especially a newspaper publisher. —Charlotte Democrat.

THE POLITICAL PROSPECT.

The late election in North Carolina is one of the happiest events since the war.—Virginia set the example which the Old North State followed; but the North Carolinians have afforded a single example of greatness of soul in the forbearance and self-control which they have maintained amidst circumstances calculated in the last degree to inflame the public mind and drive the people to violent resistance to their oppressors.

The whole South will fall under the influence of this brilliant example, and be cheered by its grand results. The rule of rascally carpet baggers is broken, and so will the low and obstreperous politicians who have been seeking that elevation to office from the colored race, which they know their demerits deprive them of amongst the whites, be beaten and dispirited, and finally, cowering beneath the just rebuke of a virtuous public indignation, seek refuge in obscurity.

These persons have had no hope but in the uneducated and deceived colored voters. Their whole plan of reaching power rested upon the ruin of the country—the prostration of the public confidence and energies, and the destruction of every branch of industry. The State could not prosper under the rule of the incompetent and dishonest men who trusted altogether to negro votes for their election to office.

It is a grand result for the whole country, north and south, which breaks the power of such men—whose only hope was in sowing dissensions in society and engulfing all the public interests in the sea of misgovernment.

All the people should be cheered to continue their noble combination without party distinctions or impertinent issues that could only bring discord upon their councils. The welfare of society, the peace of the State, the very safety of the women and children, demand this union and harmony. The salvation of the South rests upon the noble combination of all good people for the good of all.

The elevated example of the North Carolinians should everywhere be emulated. Their stoicism under outrage, their grand victory over themselves in their self control, will bring out every State from the wilderness of wretchedness and despair to the broad sunlight of peace and security.—Richmond Dispatch.

A NOBLE ACT.—The New York Herald of Monday has the following, which will be interesting to the many friends of Dr. Deems in this State:

"For two years the Church of the Strangers has been worshipping in the large chapel of the University, Dr. Deems succeeding his friend Dr. Hawks in the occupancy of that chapel. The Church of the Strangers is undenominational and unsectarian; a Christian church, requiring only faith in Christ and good living for membership. Some time since the board of trustees, thinking the chapel not exactly adequate to the wants of the congregation, decided to purchase the Mercer-street Presbyterian church for the sum of $50 000. July 31 was the day for the purchase, when Commodore Vanderbilt came forward and placed in the hands of Dr. Deems a certified certificate of deposit for that amount, made payable to the Doctor, with the understanding on the part of Mr. Vanderbilt that it should be applied to the purchase of the property. It is proper to add that this was a spontaneous offer on the part of the Commodore, without the slightest hint or solicitation on the part of either Dr. Deems or any member of his church."

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAR. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 3 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been represented by the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

RAIN, RAIN, RAIN.—For several days past we have an abundance of rain, which must act most favorably on the corn crops which are now about filling out the ears.

DISORDERLY.—On Sunday morning, about the time little girls and boys were wending their way to their various Sabbath Schools, a squad of half drunken colored men was gathered on the pavement in front of Pepper & O'Connor's, cursing, swearing and quarreling, and apparently upon the eve of engaging in a general fight. Our informant looked round but could not see a policeman anywhere, and he left them in their boisterous behavior.

ISSUE THE INJUNCTION.—Writs of injunction upon the Governor and Public Treasurer, ought to have been sued out by the tax-payers of this State a month ago, prohibiting the payment of a dollar of the public money, for the unlawful State troops raised by Gov. Holden. We hope they will be forthcoming soon.

FUDGE.—A reporter of the Hillsboro Recorder proposes to have interviewed Burgen, Kirk's Lieut. Colonel, and states that Burgen intimated to him that Mr. Turner's arrest had been ordered by a higher power than the State, meaning President Grant.—This is all gammon. Mr. Turner was ordered to be arrested by Holden out of sheer malice and revenge.

WHY IS IT that Holden's negro militia are allowed to drill on the sidewalks of the most public streets of the city? Ladies and others have been seriously annoyed by them; indeed it looks as if it were done for the express purpose of annoyance and insult, if not to provoke collisions. If we must have an everlasting show of "war," let the "hep! hep! hep!" be practiced in less frequented places.

A son of Miles Alexander, Esq., of Iredell county, aged about 20 years, was killed by lightning while standing under a tree one day last week.

Perseverence Council, No. 47, Friends of Temperance, of Fayetteville, will have an anniversary celebration in the shape of a grand pic-nic and excursion down the Cape Fear River on the 17th inst. A huge time is expected.

We suppose Mrs. Pollard is included in the "family."

The first annual Fair of the Carolina Horticultural Society opened at the Masonic Hall in Wilmington on Thursday.—Our exchanges from that city speak of the exhibition as a decided success, and have long lists of articles to be seen there.

Weldon is doing a smashing business in the Sumac trade.

Edgecombe county elected a Conservative Surveyor by 164 majority.

The Conservative celebration at Wilmington on Thursday night, is spoken of as one of the grandest displays of the kind that ever occurred in this State.

Fayetteville will celebrate the great Conservative triumph on Monday night next in an appropriate manner.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., Aug. 13, 1870.

DEAR SENTINEL:—I notice an extract in your paper of yesterday, copied from the Newbern Journal of Commerce, stating that Wm. H. Long, a Confederate soldier, from Franklin county, had arrived there on the 7th inst., having just been released from imprisonment, in Indiana, by the U. S. authorities.

This same Long arrived in Norfolk about two months since, telling the same story, and doubtless imposed on the credulity of the citizens, as he is now doing in Newbern. From Norfolk he made his way to this place, which is within fifteen miles of his home, where he ought to be now earning an honest living, but I am unable to say that he went home and think, perhaps, he did not; as it is probable that he is too well known there.

He may have been a Confederate soldier, but if so, he disgraces the name by his conduct, and ought not to be respected as such. I know that he made application to join a company here in 1862 and was rejected by the officers on account of his bad character. Please pass him around in order that no one else may be imposed on by him.

Very respectfully, J. S. J.

VOTING EARLY AND OFTEN.—A good joke is told of some of our Republican friends which is somewhat of an illustration of the how and the wherefore of the large votes they sometimes poll. It is said that in the Third ward, on last Thursday, a XVth Amendment pressed himself at the polls, but as his name could not be found on the register's books, Alderman and Esquire Howe propounded to him the enquiry "Where did you vote at the last election?" Judge of the phelphs of the venerable Alderman when the subtle compound, scratching his head, replied, "I voted, sir, at Nouf West in the morning, but in the Fust ward after dinner."—Wilmington Journal.

GREENSBORO, Aug. 13, 1870.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—

Dear Sir:—Radical editors throughout the State are laboring desperately to make it appear that the Conservative triumph at the election was achieved by fear and intimidation of Republicans, through "Ku Klux" instrumentalities. Hence we have manufactured correspondence from various parts, in all of which are base perversions of facts, and in some of which the meanest of lying and slander are resorted to.

The following from the Standard of this morning is a specimen of the latter, in which one of our most worthy and esteemed citizens is grossly and infamously assailed.

For the Standard.

"GREENSBORO' August 10, 1870.

Editor Standard:—The Ku Klux Confederates had a gay time here, after hearing of the success of their party. It was reported on the streets, (but I cannot vouch for the fact,) that "Greasy Frank," commonly known as "Crazy Frank," was carrying a Confederate flag, singing "O, I'll get my niggers back," when a son of Ham took the flag away from him, and told him it was against the Constitution and the fifteenth amendment to act in that way.—"Greasy Frank" went on his way rejoicing, "Oh, ho, ha! I'll get my niggers back."—It was told to me as a fact, that he actually ordered his former servants to return home on the day after the election. Dr. Grissom must get a place ready for him."

There is not a sentence in the above extract that is not an unmitigated falsehood, from beginning to end, and the author knew it when he penned it. The general tone of the article is beneath the serious attention of a gentleman, but the facts in the case we will give for the benefit of those who might be deceived by such persistent misrepresentations.

On the day after the election, a colored drayman of this town, familiarly known as "old Boss," who is said to have voted the Conservative ticket being somewhat elated with victory celebrated it by imbibing freely of the ardent and riding around the town on his old gray horse.

Dr. D. W. C. Benbow, a prominent merchant and citizen, a Republican in politics, seeing him thus riding, gave him a Confederate flag to carry, notwithstanding a Northern gentleman who happened to be present protested against it. The negro took it and had not ridden one block before it was taken from him by a young Confederate soldier and returned with a cutting reproof to Dr. Benbow. Such action on the part of a man whose general good sense and judgment are known, attracted so little attention and comment among both Conservatives and Republicans, being characterized by some as criminal, by all as foolish. The comments indulged elicited the following letter from Dr. Benbow to the Mayor of the city.

GREENSBORO, Aug. 6, 1870.

R. M. Sloan, Mayor:

FRIEND: I learn by an act of mine yesterday the political sympathizers have been very much disturbed. Davy, the drayman seeming to be on a little spree, riding up and down the street in a military way, giving his horse orders &c., and I having an old flag in my store, the thought struck me he ought to have it, to complete his career. I handed it to him. It was an old Confederate flag; but that fact did not suggest the idea. No one is to blame except myself, and no political view of the matter entered my head.

I spurn the idea of political trickery and am sure no man who knows me intimately can honestly make any such charge against me.

Respectfully, D. W. C. BENBOW.

This will settle the flag business. The writer of this will readily acquit Dr. Benbow of any intention to do mischief, but his folly has given an opportunity to some lying partizan to assail a worthy gentleman, whose superior for honest, manly worth and integrity does not breathe.

Mr. Editor, this is a simple statement of facts. Dr. Benbow has promised to make a statement also and correct the scurrilous squib in the Standard.

Very truly, CIVIS.

From the Albany N. Y. Argus.

THE NORTH CAROLINA VICTORY.

The great victory won on the 4th by the Conservative men of North Carolina, is the most direct and severe rebuke yet given to Grant's administration. Holden, Grant & Co., saw that the people were turning against them, and they could devise no other means of continuing their power but to declare martial law. This step was unquestionably taken with a full understanding at Washington, that the Federal troops would be sent into the State to sustain Holden and intimidate the people.

The history of the outrages committed by Kirk's lawless bands, are familiar to our readers, and now we have the result of the infamous scheme. The Conservatives carry the State, carry the Legislature, securing the election of a Conservative United States Senator, and reverse the character of the representation in Congress. The trick attempted to be played by Holden and Grant has been tried once too often; it was exposed before the people of the country, and repudiated by the voters of North Carolina. The result is an encouragement to the friends of good governments everywhere throughout the Union, and forbadows the downfall of Radical rule in every Southern State.

No wonder the people of that "reconstructed" State have made this decision. Two years ago the State debt of North Carolina was $14,000,000; now it is $35,000,000, showing an average increase of the debt $10,500,000 a year since the present reconstructed State government came into power. The value of property in North Carolina, according to the latest returns, is as follows:

Valuation of land	$69,997,991
Valuation of town property	9 566,358
Valuation of personal estate	45 914,279
Total	$125,471,623

Thus the reader will see, the reconstructed State government of North Carolina has during the period of its existence, increased the State debt to the extent of 17 per cent. of the whole value of property in the State.

Again: the amount required to pay the interest on the public debt for the year ending June, 1, 1870, was $2 100 000; the amount required to support the State government, $1,098,226 30; making the total to be raised $2,198,226 30. But up to this time, only the expenses of the State government, the salaries, fees, and perquisites of the officials have been paid, leaving not a cent to meet the interest on the State debt!

In other words the people have been taxed to the verge of desperation, loaded down with a debt of twenty odd millions in about as many months, and now their State is held out as bankrupt in credit because their oppressors have converted to corrupt uses the money that should have gone to the payment of interest on the State debt!

Now it remains to be seen what device a Radical and unscrupulous Congress will invent to destroy the effect of this verdict against them. If they resort to new measures of "reconstruction" to retain their power, it will react upon them with terrible force as have the infamous schemes of HOLDEN.

The tone and tactics of Gov. Holden's organ, the Raleigh Standard, are simply infamous. If its purpose were to provoke civil war, it could not be conducted differently. Referring to Judge Brooks' issue of a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of some of the prisoners whom Holden's man, Kirk, keeps in military custody, without other warrant than the Governor's arbitrary will, the Standard uses this language:

"Is Judge Brooks ready to involve the people of North Carolina in civil war? Does he suppose Gov. Holden will recede before him? * * * The Governor will not recede until the Federal Army is used against him; and the Federal Army will not be used against him. We are on the eve of civil war, and when it begins all the blood and all the horrors of it will be on the skirts of Judge Brooks."

We suspect that Holden's desire is to provoke the state of things he pretends to deplore. Having enabled the Democrats to secure a triumph in the late election, he would now precipitate the State into civil war that he may obtain pretexts for invoking Congressional interference. Should trouble come as the result of Holden's impudent attempt to set himself above the law, the country will hold that he, and he alone, is responsible for it. The Republican Party cannot too soon or too emphatically repudiate both the man and his doings.—N. Y. Times, Rep.

The Commissioner of the General Land Office has transmitted to the Louisiana authorities certificates for the 210,000 acres of public lands due that State under the Agricultural College act of 1862. It is to be hoped this grant may fare better than the one made to North Carolina under the same act. That netted $135,000, part of which was employed in paying the reconstructed Legislature its per diem; part invested in State bonds, which the Legislature afterwards repudiated; and the remainder, some $10,000, the only portion devoted to even the pretence of an educational purpose, went into the maw of a Massachusetts carpet-bagger now acting as State Superintendent of Instruction, to pay him for some elaborate wood cuts of and essays upon model school-houses, not one of which has yet been rendered into wood or brick and mortar in the Old North State.—N. Y. World.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 13.—Late advices from the French army west of Moselle says it is still resting. The Prussian advance has captured a vast amount of stores.

Holland has sent 1,200 volunteers to Rome.

Advices through Prussian channels from St Alvots to the 12th instant state that the Prussians have taken 71,000 prisoners.

The Times says, "all is fortnight the Emperor has secure possibly undermined his throne than his enemies in a score of years. It is reassured by the vote of the plebiscite that he has thrown away the votes of the people and his dynasty."

An abstract from McMahon's report of the battle of Woerth or Fraschwiler, says that on the 6th the enemy attacked the heights of Gunstadt, opening with cannon and rifle. The attack was so violent that at first the division was compelled to change front. Soon the Prussians made a feint from the right bank of the Saar river, followed at noon by a renewal of the attack on the right wing. The charge of cavalry and infantry failed to dislodge the enemy, and at 4 o'clock the French right was broken, and a retreat upon the Saverne and Niederbrun became a necessity.

The Saturday Review refrains from speculations on the war, because it says a few days must determine the fate of France and the Emperor. Probably the army will take the matters in its own hands and choose a leader and fight out the war.

The Spectator thinks the next battle must decide the fate of the Empire, as the the popular faith in the Emperor is vanishing.

BRUSSELS, August 13.—Advices from Metz reiterate the disappearance of the Prince Imperial from France.

It is reported on excellent authority that Eugenie has made preparations to go to England via Belgium in case of necessity.

The Prussians hold Farlisburg and the adjoining passages of the Vosges.

The garrison of Bitche consisted of three hundred of the "Garde Mobile."

The Prussian cavalry are before Huniville.

METZ, August 13, 7:30 a. m.—All is quiet. There is no news at general headquarters. Vadilly was directed to move on Lambick. McDonald's supports failed.

SAARBRUCK, August 13.—The fight is more demoralizing to the French than has been supposed. The Prussians found arms and equipments on the road worth 100,000 florins.

PARIS, August 13.—A decree is published this morning naming Bazaine as commander of the second, third and fourth corps of the army of the Rhine; Trochu, of the corps being formed at Chalons from new levies; and General Vinoy of the corps being formed at Paris.

Deputy Gambetta read a communication from the citizens of Paris, thanking the deputies and urging them to push the armament of Paris and call out the reserves. The ministry said a large number of men would soon join the army. Gambetta thanked the ministry in the name of the country. The ministry asked leave to depart having much business, and retired amid the applause of the Chamber.

Official dispatches from Metz say that the Emperor visited the camps and found the troops in fine condition.

A dispatch from Constantinople says a number of Frenchmen have left for the seat of war.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 14.—French's funeral was the largest ever held. Both Scotch and York Masons attended.

Farragut is dead.

The fortifications around Paris are becoming immense and rapidly increasing.

Railroads approaching Paris are cut. Drawbridges will be placed over the cuts to allow the approach of friendly trains.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK August 14.—A dispatch from London says the French are retreating. They have retired from Metz and Nancy, and the Prussians occupy the latter.

Twenty-one surgeons, mostly Germans, have left this city for service in the Prussian army since the opening of the war, receiving their expenses out. They have the rank and pay of second lieutenants.

Yesterday's cable dispatches were full of minor details. There has been no fighting before Metz.

The French claim that Strasbourg is amply armed and garrisoned for a long siege.

The King of Prussia has issued a proclamation abolishing military conscription in the French territory occupied by him, and announcing that he will not retaliate for the expulsion of Germans from France. Seven thousand French reinforcements have gone to the front, and volunteers and recruits are pouring into Paris.

The Generals are busily organizing two new corps at Chalons and other places.

General Chasgarnier is appointed to the command of Metz.

The Siamese Twins arrived to-day from Liverpool. Chang is attacked with paralysis; Eng feels no symptoms.

The London dispatch to the Herald says that the French embassy had news of fighting to day near Metz, and that the French made the attack, but no such report had been received at Bremen from correspondents in Paris or through the usual press channels.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

FOREIGN.

The French Corps Legislatiff have increased the delay in the payment of commercial bills to 45 days. Gambetta demanded immediate action on Jules Favres' proposal respecting the Corps Legislatiff into a Committee of Defence. Gambetta declared there must be no trickery on the subject. The Chamber must decide between the safety of the State and the safety of the dynasty. There was great agitation and many noisy interruption, when the people were excluded and after a stormy debate the corps adjourned.

PARIS, August 15.—Last evening at 8 o'clock, by order of the Government, all telegraphing throughout the French Empire was suppressed. This morning at 9 o'clock, these restrictions were again removed. The following important dispatch to the Empress Eugenie is just made public: LONDONVILLE, August 14, 10 p. m.—The army commenced to cross and the left bank of the Moselle this morning. Our advance guard had no knowledge of the presence of any force of the enemy, when half of our army had crossed over, the Prussians suddenly attacked in great force, but after a fight of four hours they were repulsed with great loss to them.

CHOLERA.
HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient,) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysepsy, a Dyscentery, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pains upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with. The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

92 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1868, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the odour of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the grateful satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound, soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers, in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

GEN'L. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
